The Modines are a cross-cultural couple serving on the Asia-Pacific region.

Mitchel is from Tennessee, USA and Marnie is from the Philippines. They met at Asia-Pacific Nazarene Theological Seminary (APNTS) and were married in 2009.

Mitchel is Professor of Old Testament and Director of the Master of Divinity at APNTS. He has been teaching there since 2008.

Marnie is Dean of Administration at APNTS and Regional Secretary for the Asia-Pacific Region. She has served the Region in various roles since 1997.

They love working with people from diverse backgrounds both at the seminary and for the regional office.

Mitchel's hobbies include reading, chess, writing, traveling, and watching old movies.

Marnie's hobbies include cooking, traveling, and trying new foods.

Prayer requests:

- New school year, students in their studies and ministries
- The development of the seminary
- Family (especially that their nephews, aged 25, 14, and 12, would follow God's guidance in their lives)

Their next home assignment will be in 2027.
